

Application form - Diversity fund

Budget

No fixed sum is defined per person, funding is based on actual expenses, the actual amount will be determined case by case at the discretion of the Lorentz Center.

Funding is only available for travel and accommodation expenses. Other costs must be covered by the applicant. After the trip the receipts for travel and accommodation, together with the signed application form, should be handed over to our financial department who will take care of the reimbursement.

How to apply

If you would like to apply for our diversity fund, please fill out the attached form. You will be contacted for an appointment with our institute manager, Anna Tudos. Within two week after this appointment, you will receive an approval or rejection.

If a researcher is eligible for our diversity fund, a budget (see application form) has to be made together with an appointment with Anna Tudos (Institute manager). The applicant is responsible for filling in the application form. After the appointment has taken place the applicant will receive a conclusive answer within 2 weeks.
